

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
USC SUSTAINABILITY
TROJAN SUSTAINABILITY STUDENT LEAD
JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Position: Trojan Sustainability Associate:
(12 hours per week)

Starting Date: Fall 2017

Position

Description: The Trojan sustainability student associate works on several exciting athletics sustainability programs including tailgate waste diversion, zero waste tailgate certification, sustainable venues initiatives, green teams certification, and implementing sustainable practices in the department of Athletics.

Duties include but are not limited to: assisting with facilitating the zero waste coliseum initiatives, LEED certification of the coliseum, PAC 12 sustainability efforts, working with the athletics department to implement sustainable operations and events practices, and working with USC Sustainability to write and distribute communications regarding the Trojan sustainability efforts.

All members of the USC Sustainability team are expected to support each other's projects, including some fall tailgate and Coliseum waste diversion efforts, earth month, garden workshops, and regular USC Sustainability programming.
Other duties as assigned.

Preferential Qualifications:

1. Experience working with the USC athletics department
3. Excellent oral and written communication skills.
4. Ability to articulate and disseminate detailed information.
5. Basic knowledge of sustainability and sustainability practices on campus.
6. Ability to meet deadlines a must

Compensation: This position starts at $10.50/hr

Application

Deadline: Open until filled. Please submit your resume, to Halli Bovia,
bovia@usc.edu